INTRODUCTORY.

e present to the citizens of Bloomington our City Directory for 1873. It has been compiled with great care and at a large expense, and we trust that on examination it will be found correct and satisfactory

The list of names, and the accompanying statistics give evidence of a rapid growth, both in numbers of inhabitants and in material wealth. Indeed it may be doubted whether any city in the State is growing so steadily and rapidly. The central location, railroad facilities, and marvelous richness of the surrounding country are unmistakable evidences that Bloomington at no distant day will be the second city in the State

Yours respectfully,

DAVID B. GOULD & CO.

POPULATION, JULY 1st, 1873,

Bloomington.....	20,100
Normal.....	2,820

Total..... 22,920

This census has been obtained from a complete canvass, and may be relied upon as being correct.

The following table will show at a glance the number of names as they appear alphabetically arranged in the Directories of 1872 and 1873, of Bloomington and Normal. Counting four to a name, as is done in other cities, would give us a population of 26,800 souls. We find an increase of four hundred and ninety names in Bloomington proper, which shows a large and steady growth:

BERLIN (re-touched negatives, only $1.50 per dozen, cheapest ever known. Improve the opportunity of saving money and getting the best toned and most durable Pictures made, and for the least money.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

To all whom it may concern: I would advise all persons who want to get any large work made from deceased friends, to go to PROF. SWICK. I am perfectly satisfied with my job. Signed,

JOHN A. DEAL.

I would advise persons wanting a fine Picture in India Ink copied from old and faded Pictures, to go to PROF. SWICK. I am very much pleased with the one of my wife, a 14x17 for $10.50. Others would charge $24.00, and not as fine.

W. S. PACKARD.

OCTOBER 18th, 1872,—I take great pleasure in stating that I am satisfied far beyond expectation, with a portrait painted by Mr. SWICK, from a copy of my little girl. The portrait is life-like, and so well finished in every respect that the most critical could find nothing of which to complain.
